

Brass Closet Bolts

Product Specifications

Description

Mainline closet bolts are specially designed to make installations of toilet bowls easy.

BRASS SNAP CLOSET BOLTS

Mainline brass snap bolts are different from a regular closet bolts, because if this closet bolt is too long, the excess can be snapped off. No saw is needed. Bolts are also unique because there is no captive metal washer. Instead, it has a plastic washer which can help hold the closet bolt in an upright position.
